

EFA Group Joins International Affairs Think Tank, Chatham House

SINGAPORE. 14 March 2017 – EFA Group is pleased to announce that they have recently joined as a corporate member of the Chatham House, the Royal Institute of International Affairs. The organization is an independent policy institute based in London with a mission to build a sustainably secure, prosperous and just world. Founded in 1920, Chatham House engages governments, the private sector, civil society and its members in open debate and confidential discussions on the most significant developments in international affairs.

Being in the business of financing and supporting international trade, EFA believes that it can make a difference by being involved in discussions revolving around the markets that they serve. The membership entitles EFA to attend conferences, workshops, and access publications on critical global, regional and country-specific challenges and opportunities.

The membership also allows EFA to partake in an ongoing dialogue with fellow members that comprise prominent businesses from around the world.
