

EUROFIN ASIA GROUP SIGNS UN PRINCIPLES FOR RESPONSIBLE INVESTMENT

8th May 2013:

EuroFin Asia Group (EFA) is pleased to announce that it has formally signed and adopted the United Nations Principles for Responsible Investment (UN PRI).

Becoming a signatory to the UN PRI signifies a commitment to maintaining and improving the environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) aspects of both EFA's external financing and its internal operations.

This commitment builds on EFA's history of focusing on sustainable business practices and allows the Group to leverage the strength of the PRI network to assess its investments, identify areas of improvement and report impact.

About EuroFin Asia Group

EFA is a diversified investment management company with a core focus on merchant finance. Its specialist trade finance asset management business gives investors access to this true absolute-return asset class.

EuroFin Investments Pte Ltd, the 100% owned investment management arm of EFA, is a CMS License holder regulated the Monetary Authority of Singapore.

About UN PRI

The UN PRI initiative is a network of international investors working together to put the six Principles for Responsible Investment into practice. These Principles were devised by the investment community. They reflect the view that environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) issues can affect the performance of investment portfolios and therefore must be given appropriate consideration by investors.
